

I do not want Broadcast Ownership opened to the highest bidder where one source can own all outlets to information.

We should preserve diversity and not allow major media conglomerates to own the different modes of information dispersement.